

Understanding Controlling or Coercive Behaviour

The Training is an opportunity for professionals to:

- Identify and establish what the term 'coercive control' means
- Provide guidance on how to ask the, 'question' recognise signs and offer support.
- Understand when coercive controlling behaviour becomes an offence.

Due to demand we have new dates for the Coercive Control Training

'the training was very well executed, clear and user friendly....it was more than what I expected.'

Training - Voluntary Community Organisations and Community Groups, Domestic Violence Professionals, Safeguarding Managers, General Practitioners, Health Managers, Solicitors, Police, Teachers.

Thursday 5 October 2017 Time: 10.00am- 1.00pm

Tuesday 16th January 2018 Time: 1.30pm – 4.30pm

Venue: 18 Waterloo Road, Wolverhampton.

Cost: £50 per delegate.

For information and booking enquiries please email:

training@havenrefuge.org.uk

Training Coordinator: Rebecca Mathews. Rebecca has significant experience of working directly with women who have experienced domestic abuse and worked in the sector for 17 years, trained for 6 years and is PTTLS qualified.

