

AN A-Z OF 'FUN'-DRAISING FOR THE HAVEN

A

Afternoon Tea – host an afternoon tea at home invite your family and friends around

Aerobics – get fit and raise money, get your instructor on board and donate the proceeds from the class

Art – create a masterpiece and sell it to the highest bidder

B

Bake off – hold a cake competition and get your friends and colleagues to bake too Ask someone to judge the winning showstopper, sell what's left after the tasting and auction the winning entry

Bag Packing – organise a bag pack at your local supermarket

Bingo – knock at the door, 24! Write your own number calls and charge people to play

C

Cakes, Cookies and Cocktails – sell your creations!

Car Wash – charge your teachers, friends and family to wash their cars

Cricket Match – challenge your teachers, friends and family to a match and each team pays a fee

D

Disco – host a disco, put on those dancing shoes and dance the night away Remember to charge an entry fee!

Dance Off – harness your inner Tony Manero and have a dance off for charity!

E

Easter Egg Hunt – want an idea for school fundraising? Set up an Easter egg hunt with fun clues for the kids

Eighties Evening – it's all about neon clothes and disco tunes at this party

F

Fashion Show – put your talents to the test - strut your stuff down the cat walk!

Film Night – have a night in, pick your favourite films, create your own cocktails and raise money by donating

G

Guess – guess the number of sweets in the jar, balloons in the car or the weight of the cake – pay £1 to play

Garden party – whip up some cucumber sandwiches, dust off the picnic tables. Charge a small entrance fee and organise a collection during the fundraising event

H

Head Shave – feeling brave? Why not shave your head and raise money for the Haven?

Halloween Party – encourage your friends to dress the part and run a fancy dress competition with a small prize for the winner. All guests should pay a small entrance fee to attend

I

International Evening / International Day – choose your country, or go 'around the world', and charge people an entry fee. Have a think about dress codes, food and music

Instagram – share a selfie, donate, then nominate a friend

Ice Cream Sale – perfect for summer!

J

Jazz – use jazz music as the centre of your fundraising. You could put on an evening of entertainment and charge for entry.

James Bond – the Bond films are iconic, so finding fans shouldn't be hard. Put on a James Bond night, it can offer a lot more than movie watching

K

Karaoke – blast out all of your favorite songs and compete with your friends and colleagues to see who has the best voice

Knitting – can you knit the longest scarf? Why not get sponsored per line of knitting and see how long your scarf is by the end of a day?

L

Ladies Night / Day – get your female friends together and throw a ladies day (or evening). You could have cocktails and canapés or a Mad Hatter's tea party. You know your guests best, so choose something that you'll all enjoy

Line Dancing – organise a line dance and dance the night away – remember everyone should donate to dance!

M

Matched! – double your funds by asking local businesses to match the money you raise

Mini Olympics – feeling energetic? Host a mini sporting event at your school/ business and remember to give it a theme!

Masquerade – got a bit more time on your hands? Why not host an elegant ball or encourage your friends and colleagues to hire a mask

N

Non-Uniform Day – get rid of the uniform for a day, pay a £1 to go casual for the day

Nominate – think of your own crazy themed challenge and nominate a friend, relative or teacher to endure it. Set a minimum amount that needs to be donated by others before it will go ahead to encourage people to dig deep!

O

Obstacle Course – get sponsored to run an obstacle course

Open Mic Night – all you need is moonlight, music and you!

P

Penalty Shootout – show off your skills in a football shoot out

PTA Coffee and Cake Morning – organise a coffee morning.

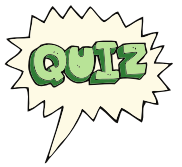

Pyjama Party – don your PJ's and onesies and raise money by being comfy

Q

Quiz – create a quiz – picture rounds and music galore!

QUIT – swap your nightly chocolate binges/secret cigarette/glass of wine for something and donate the money you have saved to The Haven

R

Recycle – The Haven is able to recycle various items, turning your unwanted items to cash. Items such as old mobile phones, printer cartridges, broken jewellery and old foreign coins

Raffle – collect some prizes or ask people/business to donate and then host a raffle at your work, school or with your friends

S

Sweepstake – a cheap and easy idea – ask your friends and colleagues to put their name next to a picture and pay their donation, when the sheet is full, do a draw and announce the winning picture from each sweepstake – simple as that!

Scrabble Contest – challenge your friends to a Scrabble competition. Each competitor pays to play

T

Talent Contest – let your talents shine whilst raising money for The Haven

Three Legged Race – something funny to take part in and watch – tie your legs together and coordinate your way to the finish line

Treasure Hunt – one for the little ones or the big ones – hide some treasure and donate to enter the search for the prizes

U

Unwanted Gift Sale – all those things that collect the dust at the back of the cupboard could be someone else's dream gift. Give yourself some extra storage space and raise money for the women and children at The Haven

V

Valentine – St. Valentine's Day is an ideal time for flirty fundraisers to organise a party or dinner

W

Walk – walk short distances - to work or the shops - and donate the money you save on petrol

Wishing Well – create your own in the office, people love to throw coins and loose change into water

X

X-Factor – have an X-Factor style competition and showcase your talents

Y

Yes – get sponsored to say yes to everything (within reason!) for a day

Yoga class – get flexible and get fundraising with this stress-busting activity

Z

Zany Clothes Day – instead of a dress down day, dress up! Charge a fee and wear a zany costume

Zip Wire – get sponsored to take a ride and challenge friends to join you